EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In page 1 of the specification, line 2, after "1999" the phrase "now pending" has been deleted and replaced by --now US patent No 6,480,446--.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-5 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claim 1, more particularly define a defect managing method for a recording medium. The method includes recording/reproducing the information which indicates whether a particular one of the defective units of the recording medium is to be replaced or not by a designated replacement unit. The method also includes the step of determining among the plurality of defect units, whether a defect unit is to be replaced or not, according to the information which represent the replacement or non-replacement of the defective unit. These particulars, combined with remaining claim elements are not suggested in the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
